

Academic Definitions:

Students will read effectively by clearly identifying, interpreting, summarizing and applying important information and concepts.

Students will write effectively by clearly expressing ideas, using effective organization, employing appropriate vocabulary, and demonstrating a mastery of grammar.

Students will communicate effectively by organizing thoughts on specific content and using engaging delivery and appropriate visual elements.

Students will think critically and engage in problem solving by identifying and effectively analyzing a problem and constructing logical solutions that are highly organized and insightful to reach a clear conclusion.

Students will work independently, collaboratively, and creatively by contributing unique ideas and strategies, maintaining a positive attitude, and effectively managing time, materials, and resources.

Students will utilize appropriate technologies by choosing the appropriate tool and applying it to accomplish the required task while following policies and procedures, including proper documentation as needed.