

NHS JANUARY NEWSETTER

Attendance: Consistent and daily attendance is directly linked to positive academic success. NHS's daily attendance goal is between 93-95%. Unfortunately, we are falling short of that goal. Please make every effort to make sure your child is here on time and here everyday. If you need assistance from Administration or Guidance please let us know.

Kudos Breakfast: Congratulations to our Kudos Awards winners who will be honored on Friday, January 6th with a Kudos breakfast. students are nominated by teachers for displays of mutual respect, academics, and a strong commitment to school. Congratulations to all!

iParent: Thank you to all the parents and guardians of NHS students for signing up for iParent. This online program allows parents/guardians to view there child(s) daily progress report, grades, assignments, and attendance. Our goal is to have 100% participation. Give us a call if you haven't signed up yet. It only takes a few minutes. Call us at 234-6221 and ask for Mrs. Vandennakker in guidance.

iPods/ mp3 players: With many new gifts for the holiday please remind your child to lock up or keep at home any small technology devices or personal items that could easily be taken by another student or a visitor in the building. Locker rooms are a haven for missing or allegedly stolen items. Please see administration or coach if you need to lock up any items.

2nd Quarter Ends: The window for 2nd quarter grades will close on 1/24/12. Semester finals will take place the week of 1/17/12. LINK crew sponsored study sessions will be held after school from 2-3:00pm in the cafeteria. Report cards will be issued on January 31st, 2012.

Athletics: For visit www.nps.org High game schedules. obtained by contacting updated game schedules please School or highschoolsports.net for Practice schedules must be each individual sports coach.

2011 MIAA sportsmanship Award: Congratulations to all of our athletes, coaches, athletic director, and families for supporting NHS's athletic programs. Once again NHS is recognized by the Massachusetts Interscholastic Athletic Association for good sportsmanship. This is a testament to NHS long standing reputation for respect both on and off the field/court.

Installation Art: Kudos to all of our art students and their teachers Mrs. Ferrari and Ms. Donaruma for designing and displaying life-sized installation art throughout the building. Check out the NHS basketball player or the chef! The talent of the students and staff is impressive.

MMSI AP English Study Session: On Saturday, January 21st from 8-12 here at NHS we will host an AP Study Session with Douglas, Uxbridge, and Bellingham High School. This mandatory session will be preparing the students for the AP Exam. Good Luck!
