

Expectations for Student Social Performance

---

Northbridge High School students will:

⇒ Participate in a variety of school and community activities

To demonstrate success in achieving this expectation, Northbridge High School collects the following data on the number of students involved in:

- School clubs
- Student Council and National Honor Society
- Music or theater productions
- Athletics, intramurals, and club sports
- Outside employment
- Community-based volunteer programs
- School-to-career connections

⇒ Accept responsibility for choices and actions (and)
Treat everyone with respect and appreciate diversity

To demonstrate success in achieving these expectations, Northbridge High School collects the following data on the number of:

- Students receiving Kudos cards
- Peer mediations
- Students on the Honor Roll
- Student awards and recognitions
- Students qualifying for senior contract
- Students without disciplinary referrals
- RAMS blocks led by Partners in Education (PIE) mentors
- Courses that integrate lessons on responsibility, respect, and diversity

Expectations for Student Civic and Economic Performance

---

Northbridge High School students will:

⇒ Develop an understanding of the democratic process and its resulting civic responsibilities

To demonstrate success in achieving this expectation, Northbridge High School collects the following data on the number of students:

- Running for class offices
- Voting in class elections
- Participating in Principal's Advisory Council and School Council
- Participating in Northbridge Student Government Day
- Successfully completing courses involving instruction in civics and the democratic process

⇒ Develop economic responsibility and management strategies

To demonstrate success in achieving this expectation, Northbridge High School collects the following data:

- The number of students collectively participating in the following courses/activities:
  - Economics, Accounting, and Financial Strategies
  - Life Skills
  - Job training, School to Career, internships
  - RAMS blocks on financial strategies
  - DECA, an association of marketing students